Dear Renee,

I have been researching my great-grandmother; with some possible leads. Would you look this over, tell if you think it is to much of a stretch?

Mollie ? Waller

Born: July 1870 AL

Died: 5 Jan 1957

Married: DOM ?? to Thomas Waller

Children:

F Sousie Ella dob: July 1893 * disappears on census after 1910

M Elija Thomas dob: June 1895

F Emmie Lou dob: Jan 1998 * disappears on census after 1910

M James Robert dob: Jan 1900 *died @ age 10-11 Rabbits can't find death record or in any Cemetery lists

F Jannie dob: 1902

M John Drew dob: 1905

Mollie spoke very little of her life. I know it was a hard life of a farm laboror, mostly cotton. She was abandoned by her husband after 1900. 3 of her 6 children can not be accounted for after the 1910 census. I do know that John Drew stated that James Robert died of rabbits around age 10. That she had other children that had died as well. John recalled "riding the bag"(being tied to a cotton bag as to not fall off) while Mollie dragged him as she picked cotton. I have placed her mostly in AL: Lowndes, Butler & Mobile counties. But is rumored that she worked in MS as well.

Although no one actually knew her maiden name, the names Grant, Albert, Savage and Mims were recalled by her oldest son Elija Thomas. Mollie was said to be of Indian decent.

I have found in the following info on the 1880 US Census:

Letohatchee, Lowndes, AL

William Grant	age 50	abt 1830 SC	HOHH	Father/Mother POB South Carolina
Ella Grant	age 40	abt 1840 AL	Wife
Gertrude Grant	age 16	abt 1864 AL	SDau
Molly Savage	age 10	abt 1870 AL	SDau
Robert Lee Grant	age 2	sbt 1898 AL	Son

I feel that this is a possible match for Mollie, due to the DOB, POB. She told my mom about growing up with a Gertrude, and the name Savage that had been mentioned. My mom had contacted some relatives (cousin Eddy Drew Mims) back in the 70's in Fort Deposit, AL, all of whom are dead now. The Grant and Mims lines do cross. But limited info/names on my end has made it a slow process.

In your experience do you feel I'm on the right track, or am I grasping at straws? Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever find what I'm looking for.

Thank you for your time. Sheila
